

LENT BOOK STUDY OPPORTUNITY

with Pastor Emeritus, Duane Mevis

“Decolonizing Palestine” by Mitri Raheb

I’ve been privileged to tour Israel/Palestine 7 times. I visited the holy sites but also tried to meet the people of the land. One of my favorites was Mitri Raheb, who was born near Bethlehem. He went on to become a Lutheran minister and serve the Christmas Lutheran Church in Bethlehem. I enjoyed worshipping with him and learning his story.

He is now retired from the church but founded a college near Bethlehem with the mission of helping Palestinian youth. He recently wrote a book entitled “Decolonizing Palestine: The Land, The People, The Bible”. It’s an interesting book telling his story and the story of the conflict from a different perspective.
